E. C. BANE,

Meats and Groceries

BRIEFLY TOLD.

Not Necessary to Leave Brainerd for Proof—You Have It Here.

Endorsement by residents of Brainerd.

Positive proof from Brainerd people.
Briefly told for the public good.

Such is the following testimony.

Mr. R. D. Ransom, of Third Ave. East Brainerd, fireman for the Brainerd Lumber Co., says: "For as long as twelve or fourteen years I was a sufferer from kidney ailment. My back hurt me awfully; I could stoop but when I attempted to rise, severe pain caught me in the loins. Often in bed I could not change my position and when morning came I had to be helped out of bed.
The kidney secretions were of a very unhealthy color and were otherwise irregular. I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills and one box did me so much good that I took another. The treatment cured me."

Sold for 50 cents at H. P. Dunn &
Co., and all druggists. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and

MAIL TRAIN WRECKED

SEVEN OTHERS BADLY HURT
AT DANVILLE, VA.

ACCIDENT ON HIGH TRESTLE

TRAIN STRIKES A CURVE WHILE
AND JUMPS TRACK.

DEAD ALL BADLY MANGLED

LOCOMOTIVE AND CARS REDUCED TO MASS OF TWISTED STEEL,
IRON AND WOOD.

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 28.—While
running at a high rate of speed, a fast mail train on the Southern railway jumped from a trestle seventy-five feet high north of Danville, Va., Sunday afternoon, and was almost demolished.
Of the crew of sixteen men, including mail carriers, nine were killed and seven injured.

The dead are: Engineer J. A. Brodie,
Fireman Clarence White, Conductor
Tom Blair, Mail Clerks J. L. Thompson, W. T. Chambers, D. T. Flory, P.
N. Ardwright, and a flagman and a brakeman, names not known.

The injured are: Mail Clerks Louis
W. Spears, Frank E. Brooks, Percival
Indenmauer, Charles E. Reames, Jennings J. Dunlap, M. C. Maupin and J.
Harrison Thompson.

All of the injured men are seriously hurt and have been taken to the hospital in Danville. The recovery of Mail Clerk Spiers is not expected, and other clerks are thought to be mortally injured.

The trestle where the accident occurred is 500 feet long and is on a sharp curve. Engineer Brodie was a new man on that division of the Southern, and thus came to the curve
at a high rate of speed.

The locomotive had gone only fifty feet on the trestle when it sprang from the track, carrying with it four mail cars and an express car. The trestle, a wooden structure, also gave way for a space of fifty feet.

Entire Train Destroyed.

At the foot of the trestle is a shallow stream with a rocky bottom.
Striking this, the locomotive and the cars were reduced to a mass of twisted iron and steel and pieces of splintered wood. As the cars went down they touched the sides of the Riverside cotton mill.

All the dead men were mutilated.
The skin and hair on the engineer and fireman were torn off by the boiler.

Several thousand people were soon at the scene of the wreck. No one on any of the cars had made an effort to jump and the bodies of all those killed were found in the wreckage of the different cars to which they belonged.

Women who drove to the wreck from Danville fainted at the sight of the mutilated bodies.

All the express matter in the express
car was destroyed, except six crates
full of canary birds. None of the birds were hurt, though the crates were in the thickest of the debris. All unofficial opinions say the cause of the wreck was the high speed of the train on the sharp curve.

The mail bags in all the mail cars were torn open and the letters and packages were scattered, but it is believed none is lost. Fire which broke out in the wreckage shortly after the accident was quickly extinguished by the Danville fire department.

On account of the wreck, all traffic on the Central and Northern divisions of the Southern will be delayed.

MAY BOYCOTT THE FLOUR.

Latest Move of the Striking Minneapolis Flour Loaders.

Minneapolis, Sept. 28.—"Tomorrow
we will issue an address to the labor organizations of the entire country,
and if we put the flour of these mills
on the unfair list it will be the costliest blow the Minneapolis mills have ever received. But we are up against it and will do it if necessary."

This declaration was made by John
M. Finley, leader of the striking flour mill employees, at an address to a big audience of strikers and sympathizers
at Labor temple Sunday afternoon.

Quick reigned yesterday in the milling district. No effort was made to operate the mills, and the strikers
and curiosity seekers were scattered about in small groups, discussing the situation in only a casual sort of way.

President John M. Finley made the announcement that the Central Y. M.
C. A. disapproved the action of the Y. M. C. A. branch at the university in acting as a recruiting station for men to take the place of the strikers.

Much feeling is growing out of the employment of university students to take the place of the strikers, over fifty of them accepting the opportunity of going to work on the night shift.
Sentiment at the university is divided,
just as it is with the general public.

Twenty-six men arrived yesterday from Duluth and were taken to the Washburn-Crosby mills. The strikers' pickets managed to talk with some of them and were told that the men did not know they were to take the places of union men.

DECIDE TO WITHDRAW.

Many Delegates to Ironworkers' Convention Object to Parks.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 28.—Pittsburg, Cleveland, Buffalo and Wheeling delegates, representing 10,000 men, decided at a meeting here Sunday to withdraw from the International Association of Structural Iron and Bridge Workers in the event of the continued dominance of Samuel Parks, the New York walking delegate, in the annual convention now holding.

Michael E. Flarity, chairman of the Pittsburgh delegation, will direct the fight against Parks on the floor of the convention.

The injection of Parks and his influence has so shaped affairs that the New York walking delegate is an issue
as directly opposed to the Buchanan regime and it has been decided to fight it out on that line by again attempting the re-election of Buchanan.

At a caucus of Buchanan men last night it was figured that the president could count on forty-three votes.

H. F. Donnelly of Albany is to be the Parks candidate for the presidency.
Those opposed to him assert that his election will mean a reign of bossism by Sam Parks and that they will withdraw from the international body if it comes about.

Donnelly makes the positive claim that he will be elected, asserting that
pledged to him.

PRESIDENT LYNCH REPLIES.

Refutes Charges Against Oath of Typographical Union.

Indianapolis, Sept. 28.—President
Lynch of the International Typographical union, in the next issue of the organ of the union, will reply to charges that the oath subscribed to
by members of the union is antagonistic and made paramount to religious obligations. It is claimed the agitation was begun by Roman Catholic clergy, notably Bishop Scannell of Omaha, Father Ward of Beloit, and Father Baert of Marshall, Mich.

President Lynch will say that the agitation arose out of a desire for sensationalism more than anything else on the part of some of the clergy and certain newspapers. He classes as erroneous the report that his organization is opposed to either church or state, and says that the oath of his union is to prevent members being influenced by politics or religion.

After stating that the typographical union does not interfere in any way with the belief of its members, Mr.
Lynch says he believes the present agitation will die of inanition.

YELLOW FEVER RAGES

OF LAREDO, TEX.

QUARANTINE IS VERY RIGID

CITY WITH GUNS.

Laredo, Tex., Sept. 28.—The yellow fever seems to be on the increase in this city despite rigorous measures that are being taken to stamp out the scourge. Two deaths and twelve new cases were reported at the close of Sunday.

Dr. Gutierrez, in his house to house censuses Sunday, saw many cases of fever and at the conclusion of his day's examination made the announcement that twelve of the cases were genuine yellow fever cases.

This city now presents a dead appearance, all those who could get away having departed for points north of the state of Texas and for points south. It is estimated by the authorities that nearly 4,000 people have fled from here since the beginning of the yellow fever scare.

The city is now quarantined against
in all directions in the state and no person can get beyond the limits of Webb county. Other Texas counties have established a shotgun quarantine
and are turning back all those who are endeavoring to get away in coaches, buggies and carts. The quarantine applies to all persons, freight, baggage, express, mail or other matter originating in the city of Laredo or points south, the only persons having authority to leave the corporation limits being the health officers of the state of Texas and of the United States. The work of placing the city in a thoroughly sanitary condition is being effectively and scientifically carried on under the direct supervision of Dr. Gutierrez and a corps of expert assistants.

The situation in Nuevo Laredo is unchanged, no death or new cases having occurred as far as can be learned.

Dr. Mariano Trevino, a Mexican government yellow fever expert is in charge. Dr. Trevino believes that within eight days he will have stamped out the fever.

AMERICAN DOCTOR DEAD.

A. G. Alderman Succumbs to Yellow Fever at Monterey, Mex.

Monterey, Mex., Sept. 28.—Dr. Alvin
G. Alderman, a well known American founder of the Christian Institute, died at his home near the school from what is said to be yellow fever. The authorities are taking every precaution to prevent the spread of the disease.

It is reported, but not officially, that Monterey has now six cases of fever.
Five new cases of yellow fever have appeared at Tampico, though they are
of a mild form, apparently.

Charles Upton of Morris, Minn., Suffering Acute Symptoms of Rabies.

St. Paul, Sept. 28.—Screaming like a cat and suffering from acute symptoms of rabies, as a result of a bite from a cat, two weeks ago, Charles the eleven-year-old son of Amos Upton of Morris, Minn., is being hurried to Chicago by his distressed parents, who hope to save the boy's life by having him treated in that city. The parents, with their afflicted child, passed through St. Paul last evening in a race with death.

Rabies developed early Saturday morning while the child lay in bed.
He was bitten by a cat belonging to a neighbor some two weeks ago, but the wound seemed to heal all right.

NIXON A CANDIDATE.

Desires Democratic Nomination for Mayor of New York.

New York, Sept. 28.—Lewis Nixon
has announced that he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for mayor. He made public a statement in which he said:

"I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for mayor of the city of New York. This statement is made with a full knowledge of the uncer-tainities of the Democratic situation.
I desire to make it clear that I am willing to stand with those Democrats, however small their number, who believe that the Democratic party of this city should lead and not follow in the forward march of municipal reform."

Speaking of the municipal campaign, Mr. Nixon says:

"The battle will be won or lost on local issues that are old enough to have gained a permanent hold on the public mind. These issues are police blackmail and that mercenary spirit which breeds dishonesty in the public service. To them may be charged all

Noblemen Fight With Swords.

Paris, Sept. 28.—A duel with swords has been fought in the grounds of a country club near Biarritz, between Count Arcos of Clavijo and the Marquis of Argudia. The latter was thrice wounded in the wrist, and in the forearm.

The party's recent loss of local prestige. The Democracy has not been beaten on these issues by Republican votes alone by any means. It has been beaten chiefly by Democratic votes.

"The Democratic party of the city has all the issues in its favor except these two. It is easily within its power to throw off their dead weight when it shall make up its mind to do so. Its right to dominancy will be restored as soon as it does. There can be no doubt of the result of any campaign in which the party explicitly and without equivocation commits itself to the reforms for which the city has four times voted in ten years."

Mr. Nixon would say nothing more about his candidacy.

MAIL TRAIN WRECKED

SEVEN OTHERS BADLY HURT

ACCIDENT ON HIGH TRETTLE

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 28.—While
running at a high rate of speed, a fast
mail train on the Southern railway
jumped from a trestle seventy-five feet
high north of Danville, Va., Sunday
afternoon, and was almost demolished.
Of the crew of sixteen men, including
mail carriers, nine were killed and
seven injured.

The dead are: Engineer J. A. Brodie,
Fireman Clarence White, Conductor
Tom Blair, Mail Clerks J. L. Thompson, W. T. Chambers, D. T. Flory, P.
N. Ardunwright, and a flagman and a brakeman, names not known.

The injured are: Mail Clerks Louis
W. Spears, Frank E. Brooks, Percival
Indenmauer, Charles E. Reames, Jennings J. Dunlap, M. C. Maupin and J.
Harrison Thompson.

All of the injured men are seriously hurt and have been taken to the hospital in Danville. The recovery of Mail Clerk Spiers is not expected, and other clerks are thought to be mortally injured.

The trestle where the accident occurred is 500 feet long and is on a sharp curve. Engineer Brodie was a new man on that division of the Southern, and thus came to the curve
at a high rate of speed.

The locomotive had gone only fifty
trestle, a wooden structure, also gave
way for a space of fifty feet.

Entire Train Destroyed.

At the foot of the trestle is a shallow stream with a rocky bottom.
Striking this, the locomotive and the cars were reduced to a mass of twisted iron and steel and pieces of splintered wood. As the cars went down they touched the sides of the River-

The skin and hair on the engineer
and fireman were torn off by the boiler.
Several thousand people were soon
at the scene of the wreck. No one on any of the cars had made an effort to
killed were found in the wreckage of
longed.

from Danville fainted at the sight of the mutilated bodies.

All the express matter in the express
full of canary birds. None of the birds were hurt, though the crates
unofficial opinions say the cause of
the wreck was the high speed of the train or the sharp curve.

The mail bags in all the mail cars
were torn open and the letters and
packages were scattered, but it is be-
out in the wreckage shortly after the accident was quickly extinguished by
the Danville fire department.

On account of the wreck, all traffic
on the Central and Northern divisions of the Southern will be delayed.

MAY BOYCOTT THE FLOUR.

lis Flour Loaders.

Minneapolis, Sept. 28.—"Tomorrow
we will issue an address to the labor organizations of the entire country,
and if we put the flour of these mills
liest blow the Minneapolis mills have

This declaration was made by John
M. Finley, leader of the striking flour mill employees, at an address to a big
audience of strikers and sympathizers
at Labor temple Sunday afternoon.

Quick reigned yesterday in the milling district. No effort was made to

Many Delegates to Ironworkers' Con-

burg, Cleveland, Buffalo and Wheeling delegates, representing 10,000 men,
decided at a meeting here Sunday to
withdraw from the International Association of Structural Iron and Bridge
Workers in the event of the continued
dominance of Samuel Parks, the New York walking delegate, in the annual convention now holding.

Michael E. Flarity, chairman of the Pittsburg delegation, will direct the
convention.

The injection of Parks and his in-
New York walking delegate is an issue
as directly opposed to the Buchanan
regime and it has been decided to
fight it out on that line by again attempting the reelection of Buchanan.
At a caucus of Buchanan men last
night it was figured that the president
could count on forty-three votes.

H. F. Donnelly of Albany is to be the Parks candidate for the presidency.
Those opposed to him assert that his
election will mean a reign of bossism
by Sam Parks and that they will with-
comes about.

Donnelly makes the positive claim
that he will be elected, asserting that
pledged to him.

PRESIDENT LYNCH REPLIES.

Refutes Charges Against Oath of Typographical Union.

Lynch of the International Typographical union, in the next issue of the organ of the union, will reply to
charges that the oath subscribed to
by members of the union is antago-
nistic and made paramount to relig-
agitation was begun by Roman Catholic clergy, notably Bishop Scannel of
Father Baert of Marshall, Mich.

agitation arose out of a desire for
sensationalism more than anything
else, on the part of some of the clergy
and certain newspapers. He classes
as erroneous the report that his or-
or state, and says that the oath of
his union is to prevent members being
influenced by politics or religion.
After stating that the typographical
union does not interfere in any way
with the belief of its members, Mr.
Lynch says he believes the present

CITY WITH GUNS.

Laredo, Tex., Sept. 28.—The yellow fever seems to be on the increase in
cases were reported at the close of Sunday.

Dr. Gutierrez, in his house to house cavass Sunday, saw many cases of fever and at the conclusion of his
day's examination made the announcement that twelve of the cases were
genuine yellow fever cases.

pearance, all those who could get
away having departed for points
north of the state of Texas and for
points south. It is estimated by the
have fled from here since the beginning of the yellow fever scare.

The city is now quarantined against
Webb county. Other Texas counties
have established a shotgun quarantine
and are turning back all those who are
endeavoring to get away in coaches,
buggies and carts. The quarantine
applies to all persons, freight, baggage, express, mail or other matter
points south, the only persons having
limits being the health officers of the state of Texas and of the United
carried on under the direct supervision of Dr. Gutierrez and a corps of expert assistants.

The situation in Nuevo Laredo is
unchanged, no death or new cases hav-

Dr. Mariano Trevino, a Mexican government yellow fever expert is in charge. Dr. Trevino believes that
out the fever.

AMERICAN DOCTOR DEAD.

A. G. Alderman Succumbs to Yellow Fever at Monterey, Mex.

Monterey, Mex., Sept. 28.—Dr. Alvin
G. Alderman, a well known American,
founder of the Christian Institute,
died at his home near the school from
authorities are taking every precau-
ease.

It is reported, but not officially, that
Monterey has now six cases of fever.
of a mild form, apparently.

Charles Upton of Morris, Minn., Suffering Acute Symptoms of Rabies.

St. Paul, Sept. 28.—Screaming like
a cat and suffering from acute symptoms of rabies, as a result of a bite
from a cat, two weeks ago, Charles the eleven-year-old son of Amos Upton of Morris, Minn., is being hurried to Chicago by his distressed parents,
who hope to save the boy's life by
parents, with their afflicted child, passed through St. Paul last evening
in a race with death.

Rabies developed early Saturday
morning while the child lay in bed.
He was bitten by a cat belonging to a
neighbor some two weeks ago, but the

NIXON A CANDIDATE.

Mayor of New York.

New York, Sept. 28.—Lewis Nixon
has announced that he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for mayor. He made public a statement
in which he said:

"I am a candidate for the Democratic
nomination for mayor of the city of New York. This statement is made
with a full knowledge of the uncer-
tainities of the Democratic situation.
I desire to make it clear that I am
willing to stand with those Democrats,
however small their number, who be-
forward march of municipal reform."

Speaking of the municipal campaign, Mr. Nixon says:
"The battle will be won or lost on
local issues that are old enough to
have gained a permanent hold on the public mind. These issues are police
service. To them may be charged all

Noblemen Fight With Swords.

Paris, Sept. 28.—A duel with swords
has been fought in the grounds of a country club near Biarritz, between Count Arcos of Clavijo and the Marquis of Argudia. The latter was thrice wounded in the wrist, and in
the forearm.

The party's recent loss of local prestige. The Democracy has not been beaten on these issues by Republican
been beaten chiefly by Democratic
votes.

"The Democratic party of the city
has all the issues in its favor except
power to throw off their dead weight
when it shall make up its mind to do
so. Its right to dominancy will be
campaign in which the party explicitly and without equivocation commit-tself to the reforms for which the city has four times voted in ten years."

Mr. Nixon would say nothing more about his candidacy.

FAMOUS MILITARY BODY.

History of British Honorable Artillery Company to Visit Boston.

The Honorable Artillery Company of London, which is to visit Boston and, incidentally, the United States as guest of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, is the oldest military organization in the world, says the New York Commercial Advertiser.

It was incorporated by Henry VIII. In 1537 as a nursery school for training soldiers and antedates by more than a hundred years the formation of any other British military company. It has, besides its age and epicurean propensities, the distinction of having been commanded by kings and princes and officered by dukes and earls. The proudest families of the realm have been glad to enroll their sons among its members, and it has been granted, and still enjoys, many privileges and immunities peculiar to itself.

From the time of its foundation until the present it has been wholly distinct from all other military bodies of Great Britain, in that it is self sustaining, receives no aid from the public funds and is the only corps outside the regular British army that bears the king's colors.

Its government is based upon royal warrants that have been confirmed by each succeeding sovereign from the time of Henry VIII. When this most notable corps of volunteers was yet in its infancy the king himself (Henry VIII) was accustomed "to join in their exercises, particularly in that of the bow, in the use of which his grace was particularly skillful." In the reign of Elizabeth, when England was threatened by the Spanish armada, the Honorable Artillery Company garrisoned Tilbury fort. During the struggle for liberty in the reign of Charles I. the Honorable Artillery joined the popular side and at the battle of Newbury was the only regiment that could withstand the charge of Prince Rupert's cavalry, which before that had carried all before it.

In the two subsequent reigns they were considered of sufficient importance to induce the sovereigns to interfere in the election of officers in order that they might place those in command who were thoroughly devoted to their interests. Since that period they have frequently been instrumental in preserving the peace of the city and suppressing popular commotion, and in the famous riots of 1780 they saved the Bank of England from being pillaged and burned by the mob.

The health of King Edward, who is an honorary member of the Boston organization, will be drunk from the ten gallon punch bowl of the Ancients on the next field day of the organization, when the British artillerymen will be present.

The Stick Insect of Borneo.

The longest known insect is undoubtedly the stick insect of Borneo. Specimens thirteen inches in length have been captured. It is an interesting example of mimetic coloring, resembling in a remarkable manner a piece of rough stick. On the bough of a tree it is extremely difficult to distinguish between the insect and the bark. Borneo is also the home of one of the largest species of dragon fly. A specimen of the subfamily aschna measures six inches and a half from wing to wing and is endowed with a correspondingly strong body.

NEW BREED OF CATTLE

Plans of a Kansas Ranchman to Perfect One.

Continuing His Parent's Experiments, John Marriage Thinks He Will Accomplish His Object—Present Generation of Animals, He Believes, Will Be Parents of the Future Herd.

A new breed of cattle, cattle that shall be wholly American, is what a Kansas man is bringing to perfection out on the plains of Kiowa county, says a Kansas City dispatch to the New York Herald. This herd is slowly being developed by John Marriage, a ranchman and breeder of Eagle Canyon ranch, near Mullinville. The story of its development is the story of the rise of Marriage from a country boy to a wealthy ranchman.

Marriage is a native of England. About thirty-five years ago his father was secretary of a company which sold milk in London, and he lived with his family at Chelmsford. Later he came to America, settling near, Iowa Falls, Ia.

When this pioneer, unused to farming, had built a cabin and paid for his land he found that he had just sufficient means to buy two or three cheap cows and a team. Instead of doing this he spent his last dollar for one pure bred Devonshire cow and one good horse.

He remembered that the cows which had produced the milk noted in London for its purity and strength were the products of many crossings and, while they were not registered, were superior for the purpose to the registered breeds from which they sprang. He sought to produce a similar animal by many crossings. In twelve years he had produced an animal that had characteristics as distinct as had the Hereford, Jersey, Angus or Holstein. He would sell the bull calves, but retained all the heifers, and thus he had the parent herd of Marriage cattle. This is the strain the young man brought to his Kansas ranch.

The Marriage cattle are deep red, hornless, as stocky in build as Aberdeen-Angus, as good milkers as Jerseys, hardy and prolific breeders. Many two-year-old heifers calved last spring and summer or will calve during the fall. The calves grow rapidly, and both male and female mature speedily.

This is the formula, according to Mr. Marriage, by which they are produced: The foundation cow was the pure bred Devonshire, bought by his father thirty-five years ago. Bred to a pedigreed Holstein-Friesian bull weighing 2,400 pounds, the product was a red cow, an excellent milker, named Cherry. She, by a red brindled Aberdeen-Angus bull, produced a pair of brindly roan heifers, and to a red Cruikshank brought several dark red, hornless cattle, which proved useful beef and butter makers and very hardy.

The present herd began twenty-one years ago with the choice of three of these, named Faith, Hope and Charity. These were mated with an imported Suffolkshire bull weighing 2,350 pounds, and in turn a Norfolk polled bull was used.

This crossing produced the present Marriage cattle, which, however, are to be further perfected by crossing with a double standard poll Durham bull, now a calf. Its name is Anak, and it is from the two largest cattle of any breed in the world—Duke of Rose Pomona II., weight 3,000 pounds, and Acacia Gwynne, weight 2,500.

This bull will be the parent of the future herd, and with the resulting crossing Mr. Marriage will regard his breed as perfected and will apply for a charter from the government giving them recognition as a standard breed.

How Patti Has Her Own Way.

Mme. Adelina Patti, whose final farewell tour in the United States is announced, has her own way of dealing with managers. On one occasion, for instance, the late J. H. Mapleson found himself in difficulties, the receipts not coming up to his expectations. Mme. Patti refused to don the costume for her part until the fee was in her hand. Mr. Mapleson gave her half the sum due on account. Thereupon the prima donna put on one shoe. Finally, with prodigious efforts, the manager collected the balance. Mme. Patti put on the other shoe, and the performance proceeded.—New York Times.

Dr. Wiley's Willing Victims.

[Dr. Wiley of the department of agriculture announces that he will conduct a series of experiments to determine the effect of salicylic acid on the human system when the acid is used as a preservative in wines and liquors.]

I'm a man who loves researches And regard your efforts highly,
So I take the first occasion
To write to you, Dr. Wiley.
I'm a patriotic person
And should call myself a duffer
If I, by my hesitation,
Let my cherished country suffer.

I don't care what it is mixed with,
Fuel oil or cream of tartar,
On the altar of researching
I'm prepared to be a martyr.
Such a fate would make me happy;
I should call my death idyllic
If I sank 'neath acid salicylic
Mixed with acid salicylic.

Rest assured that I'll come gladly
If you say that you desire me.
Drop a postal or a letter;
On the whole, you'd better wire me.
When the country calls for helpers,
Let me urge this truth on you, sir.
She will get the quickest answer
From yours hastily,

FAMOUS MILITARY BODY.

History of British Honorable Artillery Company to Visit Boston.

The Honorable Artillery Company of London, which is to visit Boston and, incidentally, the United States as guest of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, is the oldest military organization in the world, says the New York Commercial Advertiser.

It was incorporated by Henry VIII. in 1537 as a nursery school for training soldiers and antedates by more than a hundred years the formation of any other British military company. It has, besides its age and epicurean propensities, the distinction of having been commanded by kings and princes and officered by dukes and earls. The proudest families of the realm have been glad to enroll their sons among its members, and it has been granted, and still enjoys, many privileges and immunities peculiar to itself.

From the time of its foundation until the present it has been wholly distinct from all other military bodies of Great Britain, in that it is self sustaining, receives no aid from the public funds and is the only corps outside the regular British army that bears the king's colors.

Its government is based upon royal warrants that have been confirmed by each succeeding sovereign from the time of Henry VIII. When this most notable corps of volunteers was yet in its infancy the king himself (Henry VIII.) was accustomed "to join in their exercises, particularly in that of the bow, in the use of which his grace was particularly skillful." In the reign of Elizabeth, when England was threatened by the Spanish armada, the Honorable Artillery Company garrisoned Tilbury fort. During the struggle for liberty in the reign of Charles I. the Honorable Artillery joined the popular side and at the battle of Newbury was the only regiment that could withstand the charge of Prince Rupert's cavalry, which before that had carried all before it.

In the two subsequent reigns they were considered of sufficient importance to induce the sovereigns to interfere in the election of officers in order that they might place those in command who were thoroughly devoted to their interests. Since that period they have frequently been instrumental in preserving the peace of the city and suppressing popular commotion, and in the famous riots of 1780 they saved the Bank of England from being pillaged and burned by the mob.

The health of King Edward, who is an honorary member of the Boston organization, will be drunk from the ten gallon punch bowl of the Ancients on the next field day of the organization, when the British artillerymen will be present.

The Stick Insect of Borneo.

The longest known insect is undoubtedly the stick insect of Borneo. Specimens thirteen inches in length have been captured. It is an interesting example of mimetic coloring, resembling in a remarkable manner a piece of rough stick. On the bough of a tree it is extremely difficult to distinguish between the insect and the bark. Borneo is also the home of one of the largest species of dragon fly. A specimen of the subfamily aschna measures six inches and a half from wing to wing and is endowed with a correspondingly strong body.

NEW BREED OF CATTLE

Plans of a Kansas Ranchman to Perfect One.

Continuing His Parents' Experiments, John Marriage Thinks He Will Accomplish His Object—Present Generation of Animals, He Believes, Will Be Parents of the Future Herd.

A new breed of cattle, cattle that shall be wholly American, is what a Kansas man is bringing to perfection out on the plains of Kiowa county, says a Kansas City dispatch to the New York Herald. This herd is slowly being developed by John Marriage, a ranchman and breeder of Eagle Canyon ranch, near Mullinville. The story of its development is the story of the rise of Marriage from a country boy to a wealthy ranchman.

Marriage is a native of England. About thirty-five years ago his father was secretary of a company which sold milk in London, and he lived with his family at Chelmsford. Later he came to America, settling near Iowa Falls, Ia.

When this pioneer, unused to farming, had built a cabin and paid for his land he found that he had just sufficient means to buy two or three cheap cows and a team. Instead of doing this he spent his last dollar for one pure bred Devonshire cow and one good horse.

He remembered that the cows which had produced the milk noted in London for its purity and strength were the products of many crossings and, while they were not registered, were superior for the purpose to the registered breeds from which they sprang. He sought to produce a similar animal by many crossings. In twelve years he had produced an animal that had characteristics as distinct as had the Hereford, Jersey, Angus or Holstein. He would sell the bull calves, but retained all the heifers, and thus he had the parent herd of Marriage cattle. This is the strain the young man brought to his Kansas ranch.

The Marriage cattle are deep red, hornless, as stocky in build as Aberdeen-Angus, as good milkers as Jerseys, hardy and prolific breeders. Many two-year-old heifers calved last spring and summer or will calve during the fall. The calves grow rapidly, and both male and female mature speedily.

This is the formula, according to Mr. Marriage, by which they are produced: The foundation cow was the pure bred Devonshire, bought by his father thirty-five years ago. Bred to a pedigreed Holstein-Friesian bull weighing 2,400 pounds, the product was a red cow, an excellent milker, named Cherry. She, by a red brindled Aberdeen-Angus bull, produced a pair of brindle roan heifers, and to a red Cruikshank brought several dark red, hornless cattle, which proved useful beef and butter makers and very hardy.

The present herd began twenty-one years ago with the choice of three of these, named Faith, Hope and Charity. They were mated with an imported Suffolshire bull weighing 2,350 pounds, and in turn a Norfolk polled bull was used.

This crossing produced the present Marriage cattle, which, however, are to be further perfected by crossing with a double standard poll Durham bull, now a calf. Its name is Anak, and it is from the two largest cattle of any breed in the world—Duke of Rose Pomona II., weight 3,000 pounds, and Acacia Gwynne, weight 2,500.

This bull will be the parent of the future herd, and with the resulting crossing Mr. Marriage will regard his breed as perfected and will apply for a charter from the government giving them recognition as a standard breed.

How Patti Has Her Own Way.

Mme. Adelina Patti, whose final farewell tour in the United States is announced, has her own way of dealing with managers. On one occasion, for instance, the late J. H. Mapleson found himself in difficulties, the receipts not coming up to his expectations. Mme. Patti refused to don the costume for her part until the fee was in her hand. Mr. Mapleson gave her half the sum due on account. Thereupon the prima donna put on one shoe. Finally, with prodigious efforts, the manager collected the balance. Mme. Patti put on the other shoe, and the performance proceeded.—New York Times.

So I take the first occasion

To write to you, Dr. Wiley.

I'm a patriotic person

And should call myself a duffer

If I, by my hesitation,

Let my cherished country suffer.

I don't care what it is mixed with.

On the altar of researching

I'm prepared to be a martyr.

Such a fate would make me happy:

I should call my death idyllic

If I sank 'neath S. framenti

Mixed with acid salicylic.

Rest assured that I'll come gladly

If you say that you desire me.

NEW GROUPS OF BIRDS

Pacific Coast Specimens Collected by an Expert.

VARIOUS SECTIONS REPRESENTED.

Five interesting sets will be added to the American Museum of Natural History in New York—How the Material Was Obtained—Environments of the Birds Closely Studied.

Frank M. Chapman, the bird man at the American Museum of Natural History in New York, has returned from his summer vacation with material for five new bird groups of the Pacific coast. Mr. Chapman had all sorts of interesting experiences in gathering this material, says the New York Times. He was accompanied by a landscape artist to make studies of the environment; a preparator, with wax and plaster molds, to make casts of such vegetation as could not be bodily removed and preserved by means of the fluid used for the purpose, and a bird artist to paint freshly killed birds and retain the brilliant coloring, which fades in the dead specimen. This artist was Louis Agassiz Fuertes. Mr. Chapman collected the material and photographed the birds, with their nests and immediate environment.

One of the groups in contemplation will be the largest and finest bird group ever yet constructed anywhere. It will show the bird life of the irrigated regions of California, which is an example of the changes wrought by man among the little people of woods and fields. The districts, formerly arid, were destitute of bird life. Water has been turned in in great quantities, changing the arid valleys into pasture lands covered with great herds of cattle. The water is allowed to stand on certain sections to fertilize them and then drawn off to others. In its wake have come enormous numbers of water birds. They follow the water as it is moved and live and breed along the irrigating ditches until these valleys, once almost desert, are alive with water birds.

The group will show various species of wild ducks, the glossy ibis (not the sacred bird of Egypt), herons, coots, black terns, Forster's terns, avocets, stilts, yellow headed blackbirds and killdeer. These names sound familiar; but, with the exception of the blackbirds and black terns, none of the birds is found in the east, the Pacific coast species all differing. The blackbird is not a water bird, but it stays so persistently among the weeds at the water's edge that it is characteristic of the scene.

These birds are very shy, for they have vast areas of solitude in which to live. The particular company on whose ranch Mr. Chapman collected this material controls 14,000,000 acres in California.

This group will be twenty feet long and eight feet high, larger than the splendid Virginia coast group, which was the banner group of last year. The ranch, located in the San Joaquin valley, afforded a background of the coast range piled majestically against the horizon. This background, with the green, level, water laced irrigated lands in the foreground, is now being painted in San Francisco by a local artist familiar with the color effects of the region and the means of reproducing them.

The second fine group will show cormorants on a rock as they swim at the Cliff House in San Francisco or on the rocks off Cyprus point, at Monterey. Rather than try to reproduce these great rocks in miniature, it has been thought best to show a section of one, with the painting showing the great sea girt rock in the background. The cormorant is very much like a large duck. A life size cormorant head, painted by Mr. Fuertes, shows the value of the bird artist's work in such a case. The bird puffs out a bag on its throat, evidently for purposes of display. This bag, a brilliant blue in color, dries away in the dead specimen, leaving the painting the only model.

Material for a group of mountain quail and sooty grouse was gathered in the Sierras amid surroundings of the most beautiful mountain scenery, and then the party went up to Pyramid lake, in Nevada. An island in the lake is a metropolis of the pelican race, one of the last great fastnesses of the bird world. Mr. Chapman counted 4,000 young pelicans upon it. They are white pelicans, differing from their famous cousins of Pelican island, on the Florida coast. The old birds measure eight feet from tip to tip. When America was discovered this bird was found on the Atlantic coast. It is now confined to a few inaccessible localities in the west.

Another coast region group will be one of the yellow billed magpie. This is exactly like the magpie of the old world, except that its bill is yellow. It has never been found outside of certain regions of California, and it is rapidly becoming extinct in those owing to the poison the ranchmen put out for gophers. The magpie eats either the poison or the poisoned ground squirrel and dies forthwith. Although a small bird, it builds of twigs an enormous domed nest several feet high. The nest brought away was secured from the tree with infinite pains and care, and then the collector had to visit three or four of the small towns in the vicinity before he could find a box suitable for packing it.

The valley quail, or plumed quail, will be shown in a characteristic setting of blue lupines and golden California poppies. It is one of the characteristic birds of California restricted to that state.

UNIQUE NEW NAVAL BAND.

Not One of the Sixteen Members Can Speak English.

A United States navy band composed of sixteen men, not one of whom can speak a word of English, yet every one of whom is practically an American, having taken the first steps toward naturalization, is a living attraction now receiving attention at the League Island navy yard, says the Philadelphia Record. It is the first band of musicians ever recruited for the navy in Philadelphia. The task of forming the band was assigned to Lieutenant Commander Webb of the United States naval recruiting station in Philadelphia. At first it was believed that the full complement of men could be obtained in a few days, but the fallacy of this idea was very speedily realized. When the full quota was obtained, after three weeks, Lieutenant Commander Webb gave one long sigh of relief, and the men were very soon on their way to the League Island navy yard, where they were given quarters in the temporary camp that has been constructed for marines.

The men will serve as musicians on the cruiser Minneapolis, which is at present undergoing repairs preparatory to being ordered for service as flagship for the Atlantic school squadron. There will be five vessels in the squadron, including the Panther, Yankee, Hartford and the Prairie. So far as arrangements have been perfected, they will go into commission about the middle of December. In the meantime the band will remain at League Island, and the men will go through training drill and a special course of practice in music.

The men expressed delight at entering the service of Uncle Sam, and they were made especially happy when presented with a full set of new musical instruments provided by the government. They were also measured for new uniforms.

COLONY FOR THE POOR.

Philanthropist's Plans to Found a Montana Town With Syracuseans.

John Hazeltine of Syracuse, who is well known throughout central New York as a philanthropist and first superintendent of the Municipal Lodging House of Syracuse, announced recently that he was planning to take a colony of 1,000 Syracuse people to Montana to establish a town, says the New York Times.

Mr. Hazeltine, through his charitable work, has obtained a list of practically all the poor people of the city, and it is from them that he proposes to select his colonists. He expects every one, however, to have $50 when starting on the trip. He states that he has been in communication with four families who went from this section a year ago to Montana, and it is upon their statements that he undertakes to found his town.

He says that fertile lands can easily be obtained from the government, and the question of making a good living and having a surplus at the end of the year is simply one of work. He is enthusiastic in the project, believing that the settling of western lands by poor people from eastern cities will solve the problem of relieving poverty.

Club to Make Flirting Costly.

A hundred young men of the most exclusive society in St. Petersburg have just established a club to be known as the League of the Enemies of Flirts, says the New York World. Hereafter when youthful impulse betrays a leaguer into the indiscretion of a wink or a kiss not sanctioned by the laws of strict propriety he will pay a fine of $600. A second offense will cost $1,600, and the third violation of his oath of initiation (to abjure all flirting forever) will mean expulsion. The extenuating circumstance of a fall from grace is the fact that the sinners' repentance fund goes to the poor.

Radium Experiments.

Experiments made in Vienna make it seem probable that the radium rays will soon supersede the Roentgen rays and other surgical methods in the treatment of malignant diseases and skin blemishes.

New Forest of Redwoods.

The discovery of a big forest of redwoods is reported from Curry county, in the southwestern portion of the state of Oregon. Some of the trees are said to be twenty feet in diameter.

The Gridiron Game.

Now the football gladiators are preparing for the fray. And the interest grows keener as they near the starting day. There is rallying of players who have many times won fame by their deeds of pluck and valor in the rough and tumble game.

They are steering clear of barbers, for they're cultivating hair. On the heads that in the summer they were glad to have quite bare. For such cushions they'll be needing when they fall with fearful thud. On the ground with hardened surface or go sprawling in the mud.

They are toughening the muscles that will oft be sorely tried. In the struggles with the husky fellows on the other side. Lungs they're freely exercising, so that wind they'll never lack. When they for the goal are sprinting or are swiftly running back.

Secret signals they're devising, and they're working up new stunts. In the handling of the pigskin and the passes and the punts. Many hours they spend in practice, and all sorts of tricks they play. With intent to fool the rivals they'll be meeting in the fray.

Soon the football gladiators, from the youths to brawny men, will their fighting togs be donning and be lining up again.

Soon the rosters will be joining in vociferous acclaim. As they cheer the doughty players in the rough and tumble game.

STRANGERS YET

Copyright, 1903, by T. C. McClure.

"What we want," said the senior partner eagerly, "is young blood in this venture, for it means the command of the whole coast trade for us. Whoever we send must go because one of us knows him intimately."

"Quite right," assented Caldwell, the middle aged junior.

"I really can't recommend any one," pursued the other. "I thought to turn the whole matter over to you, but I think—he smiled pleasantly—"that I can suggest a man whose fitness you could at once decide on."

Caldwell returned the smile. "All right," he said confidently. "You know I rather pride myself on being a good judge of a man—that is, if I've had any chance to study him."

"Best chance in the world," said the senior, with a touch of enthusiasm—he had no boys of his own. "I mean your son."

"My son?" Caldwell stammered. "Certainly. He's as fine a youngster as I know. Just twenty-five and burning for a chance to do something. Told me himself that he wanted to work."

"He—be never seemed to take any interest in the firm before," objected Caldwell, reddening visibly.

"I know it. But it seems this new opening—the change of section—has awakened him. He was as pleased as punch when I told him I'd talk the affair over with you."

"Fact of the matter, Dobson," said Caldwell after an embarrassed pause, "is just this—it's exactly the chance I'd best like the boy to have. But you said, and I understand this importance, that the man we send we must know intimately."

"But your own son?" ejaculated Dobson. "Who else would you?"

"Who else could I know so well?" said Caldwell desperately. "That's what you'd say, Dobson, because you have no sons—indeed, no children at all. Consequently you can't understand how matters go nowadays with us business men. I'm self made, just as our business is. To keep things going I've scarcely ever taken off my harness. Harness hasn't made me blind. I don't say that, but what opportunity has it left me for an intimate acquaintance with John?"

"They are clerks! It was part of the business. But John—he may not be competent; the strain may crush him. He would do all he possibly could. But what are his capabilities? I can't ruin our firm even for my son."

"Good Lord!" said Dobson cynically. "If this is your modern father—"

"You needn't use that tone," said Caldwell defensively, flushing a deeper red. "If I had stopped to think, Dobson—if I'd had time to think of this—I wouldn't have been forced to this confession. But I'm no worse than the rest. Take Jackson and Reed and Kimball. Ask them what their sons really are aside from being college fellows who are well supplied with everything and who they believe in, of course. They couldn't tell you. They know their clerks—they have to—as they never will know the capabilities of their sons."

"Good Lord!" said Dobson again like an irritating echo of himself.

"Of course I know there are exceptions, but that's where the boy has shown tastes in common with his father, has gone into the business in detail of his own accord. John never had much in common with me. How could he? I'm just a business man, while he—he's had a chance to enjoy life. His mother says there's nobody like him; that the girls all run after him. I know myself," he added, with fatherly pride, "that it does me good to look at him." Then, with a return to dejection, "But that's not business."

"No," assented Dobson, "that's not business."

As he spoke the office door swung open without warning, and a broad shouldered, finely groomed figure, eager, alert, swung into the room unceremoniously.

"Am I breaking in on a conference, dad?" he laughed.

"Not at all! Not at all!" said Dobson, rising hurriedly and taking the answer on himself. "I am just going out."

He made good his escape and caught himself emitting a whistle as he went down the elevator.

"And that's the man," he ejaculated inwardly, "who told me to a fraction last week where the bookkeeper's mon-

"Dobson has been telling me," said the elder, making the plunge, "that you want to take charge of this new development. You know you gave me to understand you never intended to go in with us; that you were fitted for something higher—something literary, I believe."

"That's what I thought, but I was a silly ass," said his son, with refreshing frankness. "The fellows at college said my verses and short stories were the very best ever turned out by any member of my class. Perhaps they were, but when I tried them on your genuine editor the fish wouldn't bite at all. Of course, my friends and Elinor—I mean Miss Storrs—quoted the old maxim to me, 'Ad astra per aspera,' and—"

"Talk English, will you?" interrupted his father impatiently. "If I'd wasted my time studying that stuff you would have been in the gutter now."

"I dare say," said the young fellow good humoredly. "What I want to do now, since I'm a failure at prose and verse, is to go in for something solid. You see—I—I've got some one else to think of besides myself."

"Some one else?"

"Truth of the matter is I'm—engaged."

"To who?"

"I wish he would learn to say to whom," thought the boy. Aloud he said respectfully, "Elinor Storrs."

"Got any money?"

"Only a very little, and I've merely what you are good enough to let me have on allowance. But give me a chance on this opening, and I'll make a fortune for the firm and for myself. I've written rhymes, but I'm practical for all that."

"You may be," said his father grimly. "The trouble is I haven't the pleasure of your acquaintance."

John Caldwell stared, astounded beyond words. The few curt sentences that followed enlightened him. The boy's head dropped.

"I've done wrong," said his father humbly.

John Caldwell flung up his head. "It's more my fault than yours, dad," he said impulsively. I had time to come out to you, and I didn't. Do you know, dad, we had a tenor in college devoted to mournful airs, and many a time I've heard him at that old song:—

"Strangers yet after years of life together."

After fair and stormy weather! Why thus joined, why ever met, If they must be—strangers yet!

"By Jove, I never thought it would come home to me so! But we'll get on another footing if you will accept"—he rose and held out his warm young hand—"the pleasure of my acquaintance."

Mutely the father rose also and clasped it. As they stood together tears lay in the eyes of both.

Lord Kelvin and the Teapot.

Domestic science has of recent years adopted the phraseology of the laboratory and become the favorite field of chemists and economists. Many years ago, however, it was still a novelty to be treated not flippantly, perhaps, but with less seriousness than it receives today. It was with something like joy therefore that a few students admitted to the somber meetings of the Royal Scientific society of Edinburgh heard Lord Kelvin announce "Tea Cozies" as the subject of his paper for the evening.

In that bleak land, where the afternoon cup of tea is the universal habit, the padded hood to slip over the teapot and arrest the dissipation of its heat is everywhere in use. Lord Kelvin had made an exhaustive study of radiation in proportion to the surface of the teapot and wished to show that the surface of the teapot might be reduced to a size where the cozy would no longer keep it warm, but make it actually colder. The boy on the back seat listened eagerly. Here at last was a practical use for science. By manufacturing teapots of scientifically exact proportions the cumbersome tea cozy might be dispensed with and one's fortune made. Through endless formulae the lad tried to follow the course of the argument. At last Lord Kelvin reached his conclusion. "The proper size, in short, for the ideal teapot," he announced, "is approximately that of an ordinary garden pea."—Harper's Weekly.

Costard-monger.

The word costermonger is now used of an itinerant fruit seller. It was formerly spelled costard-monger and in this form appears in Drant's "Horace," to translate the Latin word "pomarius."

Literally it means costard seller, costard being a kind of apple, the name of which Murray connects with coste, a rib.

Some etymologists connect it with costard, assuming that the pulp of apples was used in preparing this delicacy, but there is no real reason for this, since the "costard apple," mentioned in Dampier's "Voyages" (1699), is quite different fruit from the middle English costard.

Some connect it also with "costard," the humorous name for a head: "Take him over the costard with the hilt of thy sword"—Shakespeare. But it seems more probable that the head was called after the apple than the apple after the head.

The termination "monger" simply means a dealer or trader, as in fellow-monger and iron-monger, and is derived from the Anglo-Saxon word "mangian," to traffic or barter, which is akin to the Latin "mango," a dealer who sets off and polishes up his wares.—London Standard.

THE TOWN OF Yafa.

Famous in History and the Most Interesting Spot in Palestine.

Yafa is a little town that was many times destroyed alike by Jews, Assyrians, Egyptians, Greeks, Romans and Turks. It was to Yafa that Hiram, king of Tyre, sent the cedar wood "in flotes" which from there were taken to Jerusalem for Solomon's temple. Jonah sailed from this little town to Tarshish when fleeing from the face of the Lord. It was in Yafa that the humble Dorcas lived her life of good deeds and upon her dying was raised to life by Peter. To this shore the great Richard Cœur de Lion swam, girded in armor, fighting for Christendom, and won a victory for the crusaders over the Arab. Bonaparte left a memory of his cruelty here by his massacre of several thousand prisoners and the poisoning of some persons afflicted with the plague. Simon the tanner's house, where Peter learned that all nations were acceptable before God, is one of the few sights to be seen in Yafa. In the courtyard there is a large well of spring water, and from the roof of the house a most beautiful view of the surrounding country presents itself. Another site of interest in the tomb of Tabitha, which stands in the garden of the Greek monastery, close to an old fountain, among the orange groves and fruit orchards. Of all towns in Palestine, Yafa is one of the most interesting for its antiquity and its strange mixture of the oriental in its most primitive form with European civilization gradually admitted.

Turtles Tenacious of Life.

The way cats cling to their proverbial nine lives is well known, but the average turtle will make a tougher stand than nine ordinary cats. Perhaps boiling will kill a turtle at once, but any other method seems hopeless. The severed head of a snapping turtle will bite for an hour after separation from the body. But more wonderful is the indifference of the green turtle of the West Indies to mutilation. A party of naturalists lately returned give an account of an experience which proves beyond doubt that the green turtle's indifference does not lie in its head.

A green turtle found on the beach turned and made for the water. One of the party severed its head with an ax and turned the body around. The headless turtle ran, then stopped and turned toward the water again.

NEW GROUPS OF BIRDS

Pacific Coast Specimens Collected by an Expert.

Five interesting sets will be added to the American Museum of Natural History in New York—How the Material Was Obtained—Environments of the Birds Closely Studied.

Frank M. Chapman, the bird man at the American Museum of Natural History in New York, has returned from his summer vacation with material for five new bird groups of the Pacific coast. Mr. Chapman had all sorts of interesting experiences in gathering this material, says the New York Times. He was accompanied by a landscape artist to make studies of the environment; a preparator, with wax and plaster molds, to make casts of such vegetation as could not be bodily removed and preserved by means of the fluid used for the purpose, and a bird artist to paint freshly killed birds and retain the brilliant coloring, which fades in the dead specimen.

One of the groups in contemplation will be the largest and finest bird group ever yet constructed anywhere. It will show the bird life of the irrigated regions of California, which is an example of the changes wrought by man among the little people of woods and fields. The districts, formerly arid, were destitute of bird life. Water has been turned in in great quantities, changing the arid valleys into pasture lands covered with great herds of cattle. The water is allowed to stand on certain sections to fertilize them and then drawn off to others. In its wake have come enormous numbers of water birds. They follow the water as it is moved and live and breed along the irrigating ditches until these valleys, once almost desert, are alive with water birds.

The group will show various species of wild ducks, the glossy ibis (not the sacred bird of Egypt), herons, coots, black terns, Forster's terns, avocets, stilts, yellow headed blackbirds and killdeer. These names sound familiar; but, with the exception of the black-birds and black terns, none of the birds is found in the east, the Pacific coast species all differing. The black-bird is not a water bird, but it stays so persistently among the weeds at the water's edge that it is characteristic of the scene.

These birds are very shy, for they have vast areas of solitude in which to live. The particular company on whose ranch Mr. Chapman collected this material controls 14,000,000 acres in California.

This group will be twenty feet long and eight feet high, larger than the splendid Virginia coast group, which was the banner group of last year. The ranch, located in the San Joaquin valley, afforded a background of the coast range piled majestically against the horizon. This background, with the green, level, water laced irrigated lands in the foreground, is now being painted in San Francisco by a local artist familiar with the color effects of the region and the means of reproducing them.

The second fine group will show cormorants on a rock as they swim at the Cliff House in San Francisco or on the rocks off Cyprus point, at Monterey. Rather than try to reproduce these great rocks in miniature, it has been thought best to show a section of one, with the painting showing the great sea girt rock in the background. The cormorant is very much like a large duck. A life size cormorant head, painted by Mr. Fuertes, shows the value of the bird artist's work in such a case. The bird puffs out a bag on its throat, evidently for purposes of display. This bag, a brilliant blue in color, dries away in the dead specimen, leaving the painting the only model.

Material for a group of mountain quail and sooty grouse was gathered in the Sierras amid surroundings of the most beautiful mountain scenery, and then the party went up to Pyramid lake, in Nevada. An island in the lake is a metropolis of the pelican race, one of the last great fastnesses of the bird world. Mr. Chapman counted 4,000 young pelicans upon it. They are white pelicans, differing from their famous cousins of Pelican island, on the Florida coast. The old birds measure eight feet from tip to tip. When America was discovered this bird was found on the Atlantic coast. It is now confined to a few inaccessible localities in the west.

Another coast region group will be one of the yellow billed magpie. This is exactly like the magpie of the old world, except that its bill is yellow. It has never been found outside of certain regions of California, and it is rapidly becoming extinct in those owing to the poison the ranchmen put out for gophers. The magpie eats either the poison or the poisoned ground squirrel and dies forthwith. Although a small bird, it builds of twigs an enormous domed nest several feet high. The nest brought away was secured from the tree with infinite pains and care, and then the collector had to visit three or four of the small towns in the vicinity before he could find a box suitable for packing it.

UNIQUE NEW NAVAL BAND.

Not One of the Sixteen Members Can Speak English.

A United States navy band composed of sixteen men, not one of whom can speak a word of English, yet every one of whom is practically an American, having taken the first steps toward naturalization, is a living attraction now receiving attention at the League Island navy yard, says the Philadelphia Record. It is the first band of musicians ever recruited for the navy in Philadelphia. The task of forming the band was assigned to Lieutenant Commander Webb of the United States naval recruiting station in Philadelphia. At first it was believed that the full complement of men could be obtained in a few days, but the fallacy of this idea was very speedily realized. When the full quota was obtained, after three weeks, Lieutenant Commander Webb gave one long sigh of relief, and the men were very soon on their way to the League Island navy yard, where they were given quarters in the temporary camp that has been constructed for marines.

The men will serve as musicians on the cruiser Minneapolis, which is at present undergoing repairs preparatory to being ordered for service as flagship for the Atlantic school squadron. There will be five vessels in the squadron, including the Panther, Yankee, Hartford and the Prairie. So far as arrangements have been perfected, they will go into commission about the middle of December. In the meantime the band will remain at League Island, and the men will go through training drill and a special course of practice in music.

The men expressed delight at entering the service of Uncle Sam, and they were made especially happy when presented with a full set of new musical instruments provided by the government. They were also measured for new uniforms.

COLONY FOR THE POOR.

Philanthropist's Plans to Found a Montana Town With Syracuseans.

John Hazeltine of Syracuse, who is well known throughout central New York as a philanthropist and first superintendent of the Municipal Lodging House of Syracuse, announced recently that he was planning to take a colony of 1,000 Syracuse people to Montana to establish a town, says the New York Times.

Mr. Hazeltine, through his charitable work, has obtained a list of practically all the poor people of the city, and it is from them that he proposes to select his colonists. He expects every one, however, to have $50 when starting on the trip. He states that he has been in communication with four families who went from this section a year ago to Montana, and it is upon their statements that he undertakes to found his town.

He says that fertile lands can easily be obtained from the government, and the question of making a good living and having a surplus at the end of the year is simply one of work. He is enthusiastic in the project, believing that the settling of western lands by poor people from eastern cities will solve the problem of relieving poverty.

Club to Make Flirting Costly.

A hundred young men of the most exclusive society in St. Petersburg have just established a club to be known as the League of the Enemies of Flirts, says the New York World. Hereafter when youthful impulse betrays a leaguer into the indiscretion of a wink or a kiss not sanctioned by the laws of strict propriety he will pay a fine of $600. A second offense will cost $1,000, and the third violation of his oath of initiation (to abjure all flirting forever) will mean expulsion. The extenuating circumstance of a fall from grace is the fact that the sinners' repentance fund goes to the poor.

Radium Experiments.

Experiments made in Vienna make it seem probable that the radium rays will soon supersede the Roentgen rays and other surgical methods in the treatment of malignant diseases and skin blemishes.

New Forest of Redwoods.

The discovery of a big forest of redwoods is reported from Curry county, in the southwestern portion of the state of Oregon. Some of the trees are said to be twenty feet in diameter.

The Gridiron Game.

Now the football gladiators are preparing for the fray. And the interest grows keener as they near the starting day. There is rallying of players who have many times won fame. By their deeds of pluck and valor in the rough and tumble game.

They are steering clear of barbers, for they're cultivating hair. On the heads that in the summer they were glad to have quite bare. For such cushions they'll be needing when they fall with fearful thud. On the ground with hardened surface or go sprawling in the mud.

They are toughening the muscles that will oft be sorely tried. In the struggles with the husky fellows on the other side. Lungs they're freely exercising, so that wind they'll never lack. When they for the goal are sprinting or are swiftly running back.

Secret signals they're devising, and they're working up new stunts. In the handling of the pigskin and the passes and the punts. Many hours they spend in practice, and all sorts of tricks they play. With intent to fool the rivals they'll be meeting in the fray.

Soon the football gladiators, from the youths to brawny men. Will their fighting togs be donning and be lining up again. Soon the rooters will be joining in vociferous acclaim. As they cheer the doughty players in the rough and tumble game.

STRANGERS YET

Copyright, 1903, by T. C. McClure.

"What we want," said the senior partner eagerly, "is young blood in this venture, for it means the command of the whole coast trade for us. Whoever we send must go because one of us knows him intimately."

"Quite right," assented Caldwell, the middle aged junior.

"I really can't recommend any one," pursued the other. "I thought to turn the whole matter over to you, but I think"—he smiled pleasantly—"that I can suggest a man whose fitness you could at once decide on."

"Best chance in the world," said the senior, with a touch of enthusiasm—he had no boys of his own. "I mean your son."

"My son?" Caldwell stammered. "Certainly. He's as fine a youngster as I know. Just twenty-five and burning for a chance to do something. Told me himself that he wanted to work."

"He—he never seemed to take any interest in the firm before," objected Caldwell, reddening visibly.

"I know it. But it seems this new opening—the change of section—has awakened him. He was as pleased as punch when I told him I'd talk the affair over with you."

"Fact of the matter, Dobson," said Caldwell after an embarrassed pause, "is just this—it's exactly the chance I'd best like the boy to have. But you said, and I understand this importance, that the man we send we must know intimately."

"But your own son?" ejaculated Dobson. "Who else would you?"

"Who else could I know so well?" said Caldwell desperately. "That's what you'd say, Dobson, because you have no sons—indeed, no children at all. Consequently you can't understand how matters go nowadays with us business men. I'm self made, just as our business is. To keep things going I've scarcely ever taken off my harness. Harness hasn't made me blind. I don't say that, but what opportunity has it left me for an intimate acquaintance with John?"

"They are clerks! It was part of the business. But John—he may not be competent; the strain may crush him. He would do all he possibly could. But what are his capabilities? I can't ruin our firm even for my son."

"Good Lord!" said Dobson cynically. "If this is your modern father!"

"You needn't use that tone," said Caldwell defensively, flushing a deeper red. "If I had stopped to think, Dobson—if I'd had time to think of this—I wouldn't have been forced to this confession. But I'm no worse than the rest. Take Jackson and Reed and Kimball. Ask them what their sons really are aside from being college fellows who are well supplied with everything and who they believe in, of course. They couldn't tell you. They know their clerks—they have to—as they never will know the capabilities of their sons."

"Of course I know there are exceptions, but that's where the boy has shown tastes in common with his father, has gone into the business in detail of his own accord. John never had much in common with me. How could he? I'm just a business man, while he—he's had a chance to enjoy life. His mother says there's nobody like him; that the girls all run after him. I know myself," he added, with fatherly pride, "that it does me good to look at him." Then, with a return to dejection, "But that's not business."

As he spoke the office door swung open without warning, and a broad shouldered, finely groomed figure, eager, alert, swung into the room unceremoniously.

"Am I breaking in on a conference, dad?" he laughed.

He made good his escape and caught himself emitting a whistle as he went down the elevator.

"And that's the man," he ejaculated inwardly, "who told me to a fraction last week where the bookkeeper's mon-

"Dobson has been telling me," said the elder, making the plunge, "that you want to take charge of this new development. You know you gave me to understand you never intended to go in with us; that you were fitted for something higher—something literary, I believe."

"That's what I thought, but I was a silly ass," said his son, with refreshing frankness. "The fellows at college said my verses and short stories were the very best ever turned out by any member of my class. Perhaps they were, but when I tried them on your genuine editor the fish wouldn't bite at all. Of course, my friends and I know—I mean Miss Storrs—quoted the old maxim to me, 'Ad astra per aspera,' and—"

"Talk English, will you?" interrupted his father impatiently. "If I'd wasted my time studying that stuff you would have been in the gutter now."

"I dare say," said the young fellow good humoredly. "What I want to do now, since I'm a failure at prose and verse, is to go in for something solid. You see—I've got some one else to think of besides myself."

"Some one else?"

"Truth of the matter is I'm engaged."

"To who?"

"I wish he would learn to say to whom," thought the boy. Aloud he said respectfully, "Ellnor Storrs."

"Got any money?"

"Only a very little, and I've merely what you are good enough to let me have on allowance. But give me a chance on this opening, and I'll make a fortune for the firm and for myself. I've written rhymes, but I'm practical for all that."

"You may be," said his father grimly. "The trouble is I haven't the pleasure of your acquaintance."

John Caldwell stared, astounded beyond words. The few curt sentences that followed enlightened him. The boy's head dropped.

"I've done wrong," said his father humbly.

John Caldwell flung up his head. "It's more my fault than yours, dad," he said impulsively. I had time to come out to you, and I didn't. Do you know, dad, we had a tenor in college devoted to mournful airs, and many a time I've heard him at that old song:—

"Strangers yet after years of life together."

After fair and stormy weather! Why thus joined, why ever met, If they must be—strangers yet!

"By Jove, I never thought it would come home to me so! But we'll get on another footing if you will accept"—he rose and held out his warm young hand—"the pleasure of my acquaintance."

Mutely the father rose also and clasped it. As they stood together tears lay in the eyes of both.

Lord Kelvin and the Teapot.

Domestic science has of recent years adopted the phraseology of the laboratory and become the favorite field of chemists and economists. Many years ago, however, it was still a novelty to be treated not flippantly, perhaps, but with less seriousness than it receives today. It was with something like joy therefore that a few students admitted to the somber meetings of the Royal Scientific society of Edinburgh heard Lord Kelvin announce "Tea Cakes" as the subject of his paper for the evening.

In that bleak land, where the afternoon cup of tea is the universal habit, the padded hood to slip over the teapot and arrest the dissipation of its heat is everywhere in use. Lord Kelvin had made an exhaustive study of radiation in proportion to the surface of the teapot and wished to show that the surface of the teapot might be reduced to a size where the cozy would no longer keep it warm, but make it actually colder. The boy on the back seat listened eagerly. Here at last was a practical use for science. By manufacturing teapots of scientifically exact proportions the cumbersome tea cozy might be dispensed with and one's fortune made. Through endless formulae the lad tried to follow the course of the argument. At last Lord Kelvin reached his conclusion. "The proper size, in short, for the ideal teapot," he announced, "is approximately that of an ordinary garden pea."—Harper's Weekly.

Costard-monger.

The word costardmonger is now used of an itinerant fruit seller. It was formerly spelled costard-monger and in this form appears in Drant's "Horace," to translate the Latin word "pomarius."

Literally it means costard seller, costard being a kind of apple, the name of which Murray connects with coste, a rib.

Some etymologists connect it with costard, assuming that the pulp of apples was used in preparing this delicacy, but there is no real reason for this, since the "costard apple," mentioned in Dampier's "Voyages" (1699), is quite different fruit from the middle English costard.

Some connect it also with "costard," the humorous name for a head: "Take him over the costard with the hilt of thy sword"—Shakespeare. But it seems more probable that the head was called after the apple than the apple after the head.

The termination "monger" simply means a dealer or trader, as in fellow-monger and iron-monger, and is derived from the Anglo-Saxon word "mangian," to traffic or barter, which is akin to the Latin "mango," a dealer who sets off and polishes up his wares.—London Standard.

THE TOWN OF YAFA.

Famous in History and the Most Interesting Spot in Palestine.

Yafa is a little town that was many times destroyed alike by Jews, Assyrians, Egyptians, Greeks, Romans and Turks. It was to Yafa that Hiram, king of Tyre, sent the cedar wood "in flotes" which from there were taken to Jerusalem for Solomon's temple. Jonah sailed from this little town to Tarshish when fleeing from the face of the Lord. It was in Yafa that the humble Dorcas lived her life of good deeds and upon her dying was raised to life by Peter. To this shore the great Richard Cœur de Lion swam, girded in armor, fighting for Christendom, and won a victory for the crusaders over the Arab. Bonaparte left a memory of his cruelty here by his massacre of several thousand prisoners and the poisoning of some persons afflicted with the plague. Simon the tanner's house, where Peter learned that all nations were acceptable before God, is one of the few sights to be seen in Yafa. In the courtyard there is a large well of spring water, and from the roof of the house a most beautiful view of the surrounding country presents itself. Another site of interest in the tomb of Tabitha, which stands in the garden of the Greek monastery, close to an old fountain, among the orange groves and fruit orchards. Of all towns in Palestine, Yafa is one of the most interesting for its antiquity and its strange mixture of the oriental in its most primitive form with European civilization gradually admitted.

Turtles Tenacious of Life.

The way cats cling to their proverbial nine lives is well known, but the average turtle will make a tougher stand than nine ordinary cats. Perhaps boiling will kill a turtle at once, but any other method seems hopeless.

The severed head of a snapping turtle will bite for an hour after separation from the body. But more wonderful is the indifference of the green turtle of the West Indies to mutilation. A party of naturalists lately returned give an account of an experience which proves beyond doubt that the green turtle's indifference does not lie in its head.

A green turtle found on the beach turned and made for the water. One of the party severed its head with an ax and turned the body around. The headless turtle ran, then stopped and turned toward the water again.

WANTED LARGE SUM
DYNAMITERS ASKED RAILROAD
THOUSAND DOLLARS.
WOULD BLOW UP THE ROAD
UNLESS DEMAND FOR MONEY WAS COMPLIED WITH.

Helena, Mont., Sept. 28.—It has developed that the recent attempts to dynamite bridges and tracks on the line of the Northern Pacific between Livingston and Missoula, was in furtherance of a plot to force the railway company to pay $50,000 for immunity from the outrages.

In August last the company received a letter demanding $25,000 in which it was threatened that if the terms proposed were not agreed to dynamite would be used on the line.

No attention was paid to the demand and shortly afterward the railroad bridge at Livingston was partially wrecked by dynamite. A few nights later another stick of dynamite was exploded near Bozeman under a passenger train. Other letters followed, and the dynamiters proposed that the company pay $50,000, and if it acceeded to the demand it was to carry a white flag on engines hauling trains and Sept. 22 was to run a light engine from Butte to Missoula and at a point on the road it was to stop on signal and an agent of the company was to pay over the money.

The company, hoping to catch the men, put out the white flags and on the night agreed upon ran the light engine. Behind it followed another engine pulling two cars. One was filled with armed sheriffs and deputies and the other contained horses and bloodhounds. The run was made from Butte to Missoula but there was no signal and it was thought the men had been scared off. Shortly after the letters began to arrive again from the dynamiters making the same demand and telling the railroad if it agreed to the terms to put the flag on the engines. This the railroad company has not done and in the past two weeks there have been four attempts to damage the line by the use of dynamite.

FATALLY WOUNDS HIS WIFE.
Herman Rossow Then Attempts to Commit Suicide.

La Crosse, Wis., Sept. 28.—An attempted murder and suicide occurred at the German Lutheran church, corner of Fifth and Cass streets, at the beginning of religious services Sunday, when Herman Rossow shot his wife and himself in the presence of hundreds of witnesses. It appears certain that Mrs. Rossow will die, while Rossow, though dangerously wounded, may recover. Rossow, who had been separated from his wife for some time, lay in wait for her at a livery barn opposite the church where the tragedy occurred. Finally he saw his wife with her mother, Mrs. Weiss, approach and enter the church. He rushed across the street and at the door of the edifice drew a revolver from his pocket. He shot his wife three times, every bullet entering the back and passing completely through the woman's body. At the door he paused and, placing the revolver to
his left side, fired at his own heart.
The bullet deflected slightly and entered his side just below the heart.

Rossow was arrested and later taken to a hospital. Domestic trouble was the cause of the shooting. Rossow is thirty and his wife twenty-two years old. They had been married three years.

Plants of Consolidated Lake Superior
Company Still Closed.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 28.—
The situation in the "Soo" is unchanged. Every door and window in the plants and offices of the Consolidated Lake Superior company is closed and locked and no admittance is given any one without an order from Mr.
Coyne or Mr. Shields. Mr. Coyne says he will continue to hold the plants until he receives orders to the contrary from President Shields, and Mr. Bickness, the attorney sent from Toronto to take charge of the properties of the Speyer syndicate, says he will resort to the courts to obtain possession.

W. H. Plummer, mayor of Sault
Ste. Marie, Ont., has issued a denial of reported disorders at that place because companies are threatening to cancel policies on the Superior company's property. He says damage suits will be instituted against any paper publishing false reports of disorders if
from such cause any insurance policy is cancelled.

THREE MEN DROWNED.

Swept Away While Attempting to Cross Canadian River.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 28.—While
fording the Bow river on the Blackfoot reserve, near Gleichen, N. W. T., Saturday evening, Staff Sergeant
Brooke, Constable Beaupre and Joseph Dishbury, a lumber merchant of the town, were drowned. The current is very swift at this point and the horses, wagon and men were swept away, only a few Indians being witnesses of the calamity. The bodies have not been recovered. Sergeant Brooke was one of the mounted police selected to represent Canada at the coronation of King Edward and had been twenty years in the service.

debate with Senator M. A. Hanna.

edy, representing the Yosemite Athletic club of San Francisco, Fitzsimmons and Gardner were matched to fight at the Yosemite club the latter part of November for the title held by Gardner. The contest will be for twenty rounds at 168 pounds.

of Eighteen.

Boston, Sept. 28.—Hope has been abandoned for the safety of the Boston steel ship Helen Brewer, seven months out from Sourabaya, Java, for Delaware Breakwater, and overdue by two months. The last heard from her was March 8, two days after leaving port, when thirteen miles out from Sourabaya she ran ashore, but was floated after twenty-four hours. The vessel carried a crew of eighteen men.

POLICE CHARGE THE MOBS.

Several Riots in Connection With Berlin Strike.

Berlin, Sept. 28.—Several riots occurred here during the day owing to striking omnibus men surrounding the vehicles driven by nonunion men, the strikers beating the drivers and cutting the harness of the horses.

Police, mounted and on foot, charged the mobs, which were breaking windows on the Moritz Platz.

Doomed Murderer Confesses.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 28.—Peter Lenowsky, who is doomed to die on the gallows on Tuesday morning in this city for the murder of Anthony Sennick, who was beten to death with a hatchet in the Exeter mine on April 19, 1902, has confessed that he struck the blow which killed Sennick.

Governor Cummins Opens It at Des Moines, Ia.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 28.—Governor
A. B. Cummins opened the Iowa Republican campaign here before 2,000 persons. The meeting was under the auspices of the Polk County Republican club, and its president, Colonel A.
B. Shaw, presided. Governor Cummins said he hoped the outcome of the election this fall would demonstrate
to the nation that there were 100,000 more men in Iowa who believed in the principles of protection than believed in free trade, who believed that the Republican way of dealing with trust evils was better than the Democratic way, and who believed that Theodore Roosevelt represented the highest type of American citizenship.

The governor said since the Democratic platform did not mention state affairs, he would pass state issues until a later speech, and he devoted his entire time to a defense of the principle of protection as opposed to the doctrine of tariff "for revenue only,"
which he defined as free trade.

He predicted that reciprocity would become the most considered question
of all public questions within the next quarter of a century, and said we ought speedily to establish reciprocity with Canada, a country just fairly started in its development, and whose markets in all manufactured articles we ought to supply by reason of the ease of our access to them.

SUMMER VACATION ENDS.

President Roosevelt and His Family
Return to Washington.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 28.—President Roosevelt spent the last day of his summer vacation quietly at Saga-more Hill. He and Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by two of their children, attended the morning services at Christ Episcopal church. The president and Mrs. Roosevelt and their children now at home, Ethel, Archie
and Quentin, Secretary and Mrs.
Loeb and members of the executive staff will leave today for Washington.
A meeting of the cabinet will be held on Tuesday at 11 o'clock, but nothing of special importance is likely to be developed.

On Tuesday afternoon the president will have as a guest at luncheon John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America. It is announced that arrangement for the luncheon was made prior to the latest developments in the case of W. A. Miller, the foreman bookbinder in the government printing office and that no special significance is to be attached to the fact that the president and Mr. Mitchell meet at this time. It is quite probable that the Miller case among other matters, will be discussed, but the meeting at luncheon will not take the form of a conference on that subject.

In view of reports that the president would hold a conference of the Miller case with prominent officers representing organized labor, it is announced that the president has no intention of conferring with anybody regarding that case. His position, it is pointed out, was defined clearly in his published letters to Secretary Cortel-
yon. The principle enunciated in those letters was framed in accordance with the statutes of the United States and on it the president expects to stand.

BOTH PREPARING FOR WAR.

Turkey and Bulgaria Equipping and Mobilizing Troops.

London, Sept. 28.—While there is little fresh news this morning from the Balkans, it appears from the dispatches received here that both Turkey and Bulgaria are actively preparing for the possibility of war. The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Monastir comments on the skillful disposition of the Turkish troops for delivering a quick blow against either Serbia or Bulgaria. There are 10,000 soldiers in the vilayet of Kossovo, 70,000 men, with 300 guns, in Adrianople vilayet, 50,000 in monastir vilayet, and 170,000 in Salonica, the last mentioned force forming a huge reserve.

A dispatch from Sofia to the Times says that a document, purloined from Hilmi Pasha's archives and which has fallen into the hands of one of the wholesale extermination carried out in Macedonia. It records that ninety-three villages have been destroyed in the vilayet of Monastir alone and that the total number destroyed reaches 111. Reports from other reliable quarters represent that a much larger number of villages has been destroyed.

The correspondent continues that
the attention of the humane and charitable should be directed to the starving population.

The American missionaries, who have addressed appeals to the United States and England for the dispatch of a contingent of the Red Cross, are prepared to assist in the distribution of relief.

American Warships to Stay in Turkish
Waters for Some Time.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Withdrawal of the American warships from Beirut seems unlikely for the present in view of a cablegram received at the state department during the day from Minister Leishman, at Constantinople, stating that although his advices from Beirut indicate that the situation is quiet just now nothing like permanent order has been established. Mr.
Leishman says that the state of affairs there may yet be regarded as uncertain.

It is indicated in Mr. Leishman's cablegram that the departure of the warships might be the occasion for a renewal of the riots.

ULTIMATUM PRESENTED.

Soft Coal Miners in Pennsylvania
Threaten to Strike.

Altoona, Pa., Sept. 28.—President Patrick Gilday of District No. 2, United Mine Workers, is authority for the statement that a strike of the 15,000 miners employed by the Pennsylvania Coal and Coke company, the newly formed soft coal combination in the Central Pennsylvania field, is threatened. He has given the officials until Oct. 3 to agree to carry out the provisions of the Altoona scale. Failing to do so, he will order a strike. The Pennsylvania company operates more than forty mines in the Central Pennsylvania coal fields.

BUTCHERS VOTING ON A STRIKE.

Every Packing Plant in the United States May Be Tied Up.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Every packing plant in the United States is threatened with a tie-up by a general strike of butchers and affiliated workmen throughout the country for the first time in history unless the owners yield to demands of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of America.

While the packers are willing to pay the wages asked, a hitch in negotiations has arisen over the demand of the packers that the butchers increase their amount of work. Every ledge of butchers in the country has been asked to vote on the demand of the packers and meetings will be held for the purpose throughout the country. If the vote shall be unfavorable, it is likely a general strike will be ordered affecting more than 50,000 men.

Combine of Car Wheel Makers.

New York, Sept. 28.—A meeting of leading car wheel manufacturers has been held in Atlantic City, N. J., for the purpose of completing details of the proposed combination to be capitalized at $9,000,000. The new combine will be known as the National Car Wheel company. Its headquarters will be in New York and leading concerns throughout the North will be taken in.

Posses After a Murderer.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 28.—Posses are scouring Loudon county, Tennessee, for Mack Rose, who, in resisting arrest, at Cloyd's Creek, shot and instantly killed Deputy Sheriff E. N.
Griffiths, of Loudon county, and fatally wounded John Poole, a citizen deputized by the officer. Rose was wanted for a small offense.

Mrs. Davis Improving.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 28.—There was a feeling of gratification among the friends and relatives of Mrs. Jefferson Davis Sunday night when the physicians announced a decided improvement in the condition of the patient.
While the improvement is marked,
the doctors will not go so far as to say that Mrs. Davis is entirely out of danger.

British Emergency Ration.

Every soldier in the British army carries in his haversack what is known as the "emergency ration." This consists of a small tin cylinder, similar to a pocket spirit flask, divided into two compartments: One of these is filled with four ounces of cocoa paste, and the other contains a similar quantity of concentrated beef (pemmican). As its title implies, the ration is not to be used except in the case of direct necessity, and if consumed in small quantities it will maintain strength for thirty-six hours.

DYNAMITERS ASKED RAILROAD
THOUSAND DOLLARS.
WAS COMPLIED WITH.

Helena, Mont., Sept. 28.—It has developed that the recent attempts to dynamite bridges and tracks on the line of the Northern Pacific between Livingston and Missoula, was in fur-
company to pay $50,000 for immunity
from the outrages.

In August last the company received
a letter demanding $25,000 in
which it was threatened that if the
terms proposed were not agreed to dynamite would be used on the line.

No attention was paid to the demand
and shortly afterward the railroad bridge at Livingston was partially
wrecked by dynamite. A few nights
later another stick of dynamite was
exploded near Bozeman under a passenger train. Other letters followed,
and the dynamiters proposed that the
company pay $50,000, and if it ac-cided to the demand it was to carry a white flag on engines hauling trains
and Sept. 22 was to run a light engine
from Butte to Missoula and at a point on the road it was to stop on signal
and an agent of the company was to pay over the money.

The company, hoping to catch the
men, put out the white flags and on the night agreed upon ran the light
engine. Behind it followed another engine pulling two cars. One was filled with armed sheriffs and deputies
and the other contained horses and bloodhounds. The run was made from Butte to Missoula but there was no signal and it was thought the men had been scared off. Shortly after the
letters began to arrive again from the
dynamiters making the same demand
and telling the railroad if it agreed to
the terms to put the flag on the engines. This the railroad company has
not done and in the past two weeks
there have been four attempts to dam-

Herman Rossow Then Attempts to Commit Suicide.

La Crosse, Wis., Sept. 28.—An attempted murder and suicide occurred
at the German Lutheran church, corner of Fifth and Cass streets, at the beginning of religious services Sunday, when Herman Rossow shot his wife and himself in the presence of hundreds of witnesses. It appears certain that Mrs. Rossow will die,
while Rossow, though dangerously wounded, may recover. Rossow, who had been separated from his wife for some time, lay in wait for her at a livery barn opposite the church where the tragedy occurred. Finally he saw
his wife with her mother, Mrs. Weiss, approach and enter the church. He rushed across the street and at the door of the edifice drew a revolver
from his pocket. He shot his wife three times, every bullet entering the
back and passing completely through
The bullet deflected slightly and entered his side just below the heart.

Rossow was arrested and later taken
to a hospital. Domestic trouble was
the cause of the shooting. Rossow is thirty and his wife twenty-two years
years.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 28.—
The situation in the "Soo" is unchanged. Every door and window in
the plants and offices of the Consolidated Lake Superior company is closed
and locked and no admittance is given
Coyne or Mr. Shields. Mr. Coyne says
he will continue to hold the plants un-
from President Shields, and Mr. Rick-ness, the attorney sent from Toronto
to take charge of the properties of the Speer syndicate, says he will resort to the courts to obtain possession.

W. H. Plummer, mayor of Sault
Ste. Marie, Ont., has issued a denial of reported disorders at that place because companies are threatening to cancel policies on the Superior company's property. He says damage suits
will be instituted against any paper
publishing false reports of disorders if
from such cause any insurance policy
is cancelled.

THREE MEN DROWNED.
Swept Away While Attempting to Cross Canadian River.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 28.—While
fording the Bow river on the Blackfoot reserve, near Gleichen, N. W. T., Saturday evening, Staff Sergeant
Brooke, Constable Beaupre and Joseph Disbury, a lumber merchant of the town, were drowned. The current is very swift at this point, and the horses,
wagon and men were swept away, only
a few Indians being witnesses of the
calamity. The bodies have not been recovered. Sergeant Brooke was one of the mounted police selected to represent Canada at the coronation of King Edward, and had been twenty
years in the service.

debate with Senator M. A. Hanna.

nedy, representing the Yosemite Athletic club of San Francisco, Fitzsimmons and Gardner were matched to fight at the Yosemite club the latter part of November for the title held by Gardner. The contest will be for twenty rounds at 168 pounds.

ALL HOPE ABANDONED.

of Eighteen.

Boston, Sept. 28.—Hope has been abandoned for the safety of the Boston steel ship Helen Brewer, seven months out from Sourabaya, Java, for Delaware Breakwater, and overdue by
two months. The last heard from her
was March 8, two days after leaving
port, when thirteen miles out from Sourabaya she ran ashore, but was floating after twenty-four hours. The

POLICE CHARGE THE MOBS.
Several Riots in Connection With Berlin Strike.

Berlin, Sept. 28.—Several riots occurred here during the day owing to striking omnibus men surrounding the
vehicles driven by nonunion men, the strikers beating the drivers and cutting the harness of the horses.
Police, mounted and on foot, charged
the mobs, which were breaking windows on the Moritz Platz.

a hatchet in the Exeter mine on April 19, 1902, has confessed that he struck
the blow which killed Sennick.

Governor Cummins Opens It at Des Moines, Ia.
Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 28.—Governor
A. B. Cummins opened the Iowa Republican campaign here before 2,000 persons. The meeting was under the auspices of the Polk County Republican club, and its president, Colonel A.
B. Shaw, presided. Governor Cummins said he hoped the outcome of the
election this fall would demonstrate
to the nation that there were 100,000
more men in Iowa who believed in the principles of protection than believed
in free trade, who believed that the Republican way of dealing with trust
evils was better than the Democratic
way, and who believed that Theodore Roosevelt represented the highest
type of American citizenship.

The governor said since the Democratic platform did not mention state
affairs, he would pass state issues until a later speech, and he devoted his
entire time to a defense of the principle of protection as opposed to the doctrine of tariff "for revenue only,"
which he defined as free trade.

He predicted that reciprocity would
become the most considered question
of all public questions within the next
quarter of a century, and said we ought
speedily to establish reciprocity with Canada, a country just fairly started
in its development, and whose markets in all manufactured articles we ought to supply by reason of the ease

SUMMER VACATION ENDS.
President Roosevelt and His Family
Return to Washington.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 28.—President Roosevelt spent the last day of his summer vacation quietly at Saga-
more Hill. He and Mrs. Roosevelt,
accompanied by two of their children,
attended the morning services at Christ Episcopal church. The president and Mrs. Roosevelt and their children now at home, Ethel, Archie
and Quentin, Secretary and Mrs.
Loeb and members of the executive
staff will leave today for Washington.
A meeting of the cabinet will be held
on Tuesday at 11 o'clock, but nothing
of special importance is likely to be developed.

On Tuesday afternoon the president will have as a guest at luncheon John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America. It is announced that arrangement for the luncheon was
made prior to the latest developments in the case of W. A. Miller, the foreman bookbinder in the government
printing office, and that no special significance is to be attached to the fact that the president and Mr. Mitchell meet at this time. It is quite probable that the Miller case among other matters, will be discussed, but the meeting at luncheon will not take the form of a conference on that subject.

In view of reports that the president would hold a conference on the Miller case with prominent officers representing organized labor, it is announced that the president has no intention of conferring with anybody regarding that case. His position, it is pointed out, was defined clearly in his
published letters to Secretary Cortel-
yon. The principle enunciated in those letters was framed in accordance with the statutes of the United States and on it the president expects
to stand.

BOTH PREPARING FOR WAR.
Turkey and Bulgaria Equipping and Mobilizing Troops.

London, Sept. 28.—While there is little fresh news this morning from the Balkans, it appears from the dispatches received here that both Turkey and Bulgaria are actively preparing for the possibility of war. The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Monastir comments on the skillful
disposition of the Turkish troops for
delivering a quick blow against either Serbia or Bulgaria. There are 10,000
soldiers in the vilayet of Kossovo, 70,000 men, with 300 guns, in Adrianople vilayet, 50,000 in monastir vilayet,
and 170,000 in Salonica, the last mentioned force forming a huge reserve.

A dispatch from Sofia to the Times
says that a document, purloined from Hilmi Pasha's archives and which has
fallen into the hands of one of the consults, gives confirmation of the wholesale extermination carried out in Macedonia. It records that ninety-
three villages have been destroyed in
the vilayet of Monastir alone and that
the total number destroyed reaches 111. Reports from other reliable quarters represent that a much larger number of villages has been destroyed.

The correspondent continues that
the attention of the humane and
charitable should be directed to the starving population.

The American missionaries, who
States and England for the dispatch of a contingent of the Red Cross, are prepared to assist in the distribution of relief.

American Warships to Stay in Turkish

Washington, Sept. 28.—Withdrawal
of the American warships from Beirut
seems unlikely for the present in view
of a cablegram received at the state department during the day from Minister Leishman, at Constantinople,
stating that although his advices from Beirut indicate that the situation is
quiet just now, nothing like permanent order has been established. Mr.
Leishman says that the state of affairs
there may yet be regarded as uncertain.

It is indicated in Mr. Leishman's cablegram that the departure of the warships might be the occasion for a renewal of the riots.

Soft Coal Miners in Pennsylvania
Threaten to Strike.

Every Packing Plant in the United States May Be Tied Up.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Every packing
plant in the United States is threatened with a tie-up by a general strike of butchers and affiliated workmen
throughout the country for the first time in history unless the owners
Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of America.

While the packers are willing to pay
the wages asked, a hitch in negotiations has arisen over the demand of
the packers that the butchers increase their amount of work. Every ledge of butchers in the country has been asked to vote on the demand of
for the purpose throughout the country. If the vote shall be unfavorable,
it is likely a general strike will be ordered affecting more than 50,000 men.

leading car wheel manufacturers has been held in Atlantic City, N. J., for
the purpose of completing details of
the proposed combination to be capitalized at $9,000,000. The new combine will be known as the National
Car Wheel company. Its headquarters will be in New York and leading concerns throughout the North will
be taken in.

are scouring London county, Tennessee, for Mack Rose, who, in resist-
instantly killed Deputy Sheriff E. N.
Griffiths, of Loudon county, and fatally wounded John Poole, a citizen deputized by the officer. Rose was wanted for a small offense.

Mrs. Davis Improving.
Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 28.—There was a feeling of gratification among the friends and relatives of Mrs. Jefferson Davis Sunday night when the physicians announced a decided improvement in the condition of the patient.
While the improvement is marked,
the doctors will not go so far as to
danger.

British Emergency Ration.
Every soldier in the British army
carries in his haversack what is known as the "emergency ration." This consists of a small tin cylinder, similar to
a pocket spirit flask, divided into two compartments. One of these is filled with four ounces of cocoa paste, and
the other contains a similar quantity of concentrated beef (pemmican). As its title implies, the ration is not to be used except in the case of direst necessity, and if consumed in small quantities it will maintain strength for thirty-
six hours.

Deputy Game Warden Saunders has placed under arrest Frank Schrader, of Pequot, who is charged with having deer in his possession out of season.

The arrest and the hearing which will follow will be a test of a new phase of the game law not heretofore tried. Schrader was arrested with a deer head in his possession. It is claimed he is a taxidermist and made a business of going out and getting game in order to mount the heads, or sometimes even the whole carcass.

Mr. Schrader has retained Polk & Polk, of this city, and the case will come up for hearing in Brainerd next Thursday afternoon.

RAILROAD GOSSIP

For several months past there has been all kinds of newspaper talk about a cut-off on the Northern Pacific being constructed from St. Cloud west to join the main line near Hawley or Winnipeg Junction, but these reports have always varied to such a degree that it was hard to get anything reliable. The Times representative had a talk last evening with one of the prominent officials of the Northern Pacific, a personal friend of President Mellen, (his name is withheld at his own request) who gave a little of the truth of the matter.

The cut-off will be built. The work is to be begun early in the spring and will be conducted from St. Cloud northwest and from Hawley southeast to meet. The survey has been completed and approved. From this city the line will run through St. Wendel and Holding townships up to Long Prairie, and on to Hawley by way of Vining on the Fergus branch. Long Prairie is to be made a division point, and following its completion the North Coast Limited and through west and east bound trains will be run via this route, thus making it the main line. The contracts for the grading have already been let. This will naturally give this city additional prestige as a railroad point. The cost of the work will run up to several million dollars, but the stockholders feel that the proposition will bring excellent returns in that the branch and will tap a productive section of the state not invaded by competing lines, and besides shorten the distance to be traveled by through trains.—St. Cloud Times.

M. McKernon, trainmaster on the Lake Superior division of the Northern Pacific, has tendered his resignation, and it is understood he will go to Trenton, Mo., to take a position on the Rock Island road under his former chief on the Lake Superior division, G. W. Vanderslice. His successor has not yet been named, and he will continue to act until he is relieved. Mr. McKernon came here from Seattle to take the position of trainmaster after V. L. Bean was promoted to assistant superintendent of the union depot.—Duluth News Tribune.

"THE CONVICT'S DAUGHTER."

A melodrama abounding with startling sensations, fine scenery and electrical devices, with a nice acting company, constitute the main characteristics of "The Convict's Daughter." The author has made the central figure that of a tramp—an escaped convict—innocent as far as crime goes, but unjustly sentenced for another man's crime, that of murder. He finally escapes from prison and becomes a tramp. Col. Gould's confidential bookkeeper discovers his identity and by threatening to send him back to prison compels him to become an unwilling accomplice to his villainous scheme of winning the hand, or ruining, Col. Gould's beautiful adopted daughter.

The great sacrifice of "Weary Willie" to the girl he has just discovered is his own daughter, is indeed a noble one. Rather than admit she is his daughter and blight her young life forever, he denies the relationship and goes back to prison.

Imprisonment again makes him a desperate man and he suddenly determines to escape. A passing freight train is his only opportunity, but he makes a bold dash for liberty and once more fortune carries him to safety and freedom.

It is a powerful, sensational play and will be seen at the Brainerd theatre tonight.

He will, with the Root-Gardner pictures of the famous Fort Erie battle, appear at the Brainerd theatre next Wednesday, Sept. 30, in an exhibition of scientific bag punching. In this connection there is also a vaudeville show, making altogether one of the most desirable attractions offered.

O. G. Graham's Team Ran Away and Smashed in a Window in Store of J. F. Murphy & Co.

There was a rather lively mixup on Sixth street this morning. O. G. Graham, the water man, has a team of horses that is addicted to the habit of running away about every other month, and this morning happened to be one of the times when they felt real good. They started to run north on Sixth street and by the time they got to the center of the block between Front and Laurel they were going at a rather lively clip. They tried to make the alley along side the postoffice, but could not make the turn. One horse fell on the cement walk in front of J. F. Murphy & Co.'s store and the other one smashed in the window. Had the horse not fallen on the sidewalk it is thought that the team would have landed in the store.

Jim Murphy says it was a pair of "broncho suspender" that were hanging in the window that stopped the horses in their mad rush.

Word From Supt. Cook, of Brainerd Lumber Company to Effect that There will be no More Sawing.

The Brainerd Lumber company mills in this city are shut down for good for this season. Word was received to this effect this morning from Supt. Cook, who went to Minneapolis on Saturday to confer with the other officials of the company. The company has evidently decided that it would not pay to put in the extra expense that it would take just now to get the drive in.

While the mills are closed down rather early it is figured that it will not materially affect Brainerd or the company in the long run. It will simply mean that the season next year will be the longest in the history of the company.

MAY BUILD THIRD HOSPITAL.

The Northern Pacific Beneficial Association Contemplates Building Third Hospital at Tacoma.

Sunday's Pioneer Press contains the following:

With two splendidly equipped hospitals in operation, the employees of the Northern Pacific are now planning for the construction of a third, at Tacoma, to serve the entire western district of the system. The Northern Pacific Beneficial association, the organization through which the employees maintain their hospital and medical service, completes its year with a surplus of $27,674. This forms the nucleus of a fund with which operations may be commenced, and it is probable that when the association is ready to build, the system will take over a large share of the first cost of the third hospital, relieving the association of the expense, as was done in the construction of the hospitals at Brainerd and at Missoula.

The association has appointed a committee to take up the question of a new hospital and report on the advisability of undertaking its erection. It is not expected that a report will be rendered for several months. In the meantime the committee will investigate the conditions at Tacoma, and gather data relating to the cost of a new building and the available sites.

The big hospital at Brainerd cares for the cases arising on the eastern lines of the system. The hospital at Missoula cares for the middle division of the system and its western branch lines. The cases on the coast line have been cared for at the general hospital at Seattle, and St. Joseph's hospital at Tacoma, under arrangements entered into by the association with the hospital managers. Patients at these hospitals have been treated by the association's surgeons.

At Missoula the association has recently erected a large addition to its hospital by means of which its facilities have been materially increased. The buildings and grounds compare favorably with those of any hospital in St. Paul, and the institution ranks with the best in the west.

Miss Millard leads in the singing, also rendering two or three solos each evening, and her work is also greatly appreciated.

The ladies will be here for a part of another week, and perhaps all the week.

They will hold services every evening until Friday anyway, and announcement will be made later, of other arrangements.

A LARGE TURNOUT.

The Misses Smith and Millard Draw Another Large Audience at First Congregational Church.

Last night there was another large and appreciative audience out to hear the lady evangelists, Misses Smith and Millard. Miss Smith spoke on the life of Lazarus and her sermon was full of good thought. She is one of the most interesting lady speakers that has ever been heard in this city and every night throughout the past week she has drawn large crowds. Miss Millard leads in the singing, also rendering two or three solos each evening, and her work is also greatly appreciated.

The ladies will be here for a part of another week, and perhaps all the week.

They will hold services every evening until Friday anyway, and announcement will be made later, of other arrangements.

SAVE YOUR MONEY

It is easy to save money by our plan, because it teaches you to take care of the small change, which does not seem to amount to much. But, a nickel is five cents—twenty nickels make a dollar, and DOLLARS make you

If you think so, open an account with us when our authorized representative calls upon you, or call at the Bank and open an account.
